“Bravo I say!! I rarely write radio programs I listen to on my local station, that is unless I'm motivated in some way. And you have done that with the Italy tour and broadcast. Some background, I happened across your excellent radio program during a live transmission from Santa Barbara and I've listened every week since for over a year. I've bought Travelpro for my nephew's wedding because of you and we insured our travels this summer to Costa Rica with your Travel Guard partner and were very happy. I do listen as I say, and am writing to express how moved I was hearing your broadcast from Rome. I think in every show section I learned something I hadn't known before tuning in, I find that amazing. You stirred a passion I have for that country and solidified an intent on returning sometime in 2023. Bravo for your excellence, I applaud that you never do the ordinary or predictable programming like too many others, I believe that says a lot about the substances of the both of you as people. You are absolutely America's #1 Travel Radio Show and a true joy to listen to every week. Carry on....”

“What a blessing your show is! You have such a fabulous show! I listen to you weekly on AM 570 here in Washington, DC. For Roman Catholics around the world, it's All Saints Day today and All Souls Day on Wednesday. Will you be going to the Basilica of St. Peter, the Sistine Chapel or to any of the many churches throughout Rome?”

Definitely going there when we get back someday. I'm gonna listen again on your website as I loved, loved, loved that you brought Rome to us today!”

“My family and I have traveled to Italy 3 separate times and have always had a fabulous time visiting the many churches, strolling the narrow and winding streets and alleys, and eating more gelato that a person should be allowed to have (lol). The Ancient Ostia location is new to us and looked it up while listening and you've given us another place to explore in the future.”
